Straßenkinderlied 2

What can I say if you don't listen?
What can I show if you don't watch?

I'm sick of fighting,
sick of hearing you both,
saying ugly words, worst words.
This is not a family this is hell to me.
Hating you for doing this to someone you call your baby.

I often think about trying it again,
trying to reach your attention.
Should I give up? Should I give up
and make my own way?

See all the happiness around me
and the mess in my home, in my heart.

In the night my mind disappears,
going on a journey watching
the sun rising again in a better world.
I think I'm jealous at that beauty I'm missing.

I often think about trying it again,
trying to reach your attention.
Should I give up? Should I give up
and make my own way?

I see myself in a brighter light.
I see myself new.
I see myself strong enough
to leave you
and make my own way.

Not coming back to you

I'm not coming back to you,
cause I don't miss you,
I don't need you – never did.
I'm not coming back to you,
cause I don't miss you,
I don't need you – never did.

Oh please lie, leave my head,
oh please lie, leave my head,
oh please lie, leave my head!
I still need a home.

I can say I've made it, cause I'm here,
and I feel free.
and I do whatever I want to.
I've survived but it wasn't easy,
but it gets.
Nothing ever stopped me.
You ask me why. I tell you why.

I'm not coming back to you,
cause I don't miss you,
I don't need you – never did.
I'm not coming back to you,
cause I don't miss you,
I don't need you – never did.

Oh please lie, leave my head,
oh please lie, leave my head,
oh please lie, leave my head!
I still need a home.

Some nights have been cold,
empty and even weird
out there on my own battlefield.
Oh I need, oh I need a shelter,
maybe a new one,
but I've made my own one.

I'm not coming back to you,
cause I don't miss you,
I don't need you – never did.
I'm not coming back to you,
cause I don't miss you,
I don't need you – never did.

Oh please lie, leave my head,
oh please lie, leave my head,
oh please lie, leave my head!
I still need a home.

Hate you

I know that look in your eyes – I hate you.
I know that smile,
you take your power and make you up – I hate you,
using your being over me like a weapon.
Oh, you feel so important.

I will live when you are lying.
I will breath when you are dying.
I hate your satisfied smile.
You feel so vital but I will bring your fall.

Sometimes I would like to say I hate you,
but I can't into your face,
cause you're a little king with a audience
waiting for you to end.

I will live when you are lying.
I will breath when you are dying.
I hate your satisfied smile.
You feel so vital but I will bring your fall.

Someday you will look to me
and be envious,
because I made it without you.
No throwing stones at you,
but you knew you couldn't get me,
you couldn't break,
you will never stop me.

I will live when you are lying.
I will breath when you are dying.
I hate your satisfied smile.
You feel so vital but I will bring your fall.

I will bring your fall.

Nothing more to say

There's nothing more to say,
there's nothing more to say, yeah.
There's nothing more to say,
there's nothing more to say.

I love the smell in the air
after a summer rain shower.
I love when my friends would always be there
to forget all pain, all sorrow,
don't think about tomorrow.
don't think about tomorrow.

There's nothing more to say,
there's nothing more to say, yeah.
There's nothing more to say,
there's nothing more to say.

I love the first taste of cold water
when the sun is burning on my skin.
I love to see the first flowers
and the very first feeling of spring.

I love the smell in the air
after a summer rain shower.
I love when my friends would always be there
to forget all pain, all sorrow,
don't think about tomorrow.
don't think about tomorrow.

I love the first taste of cold water
when the sun is burning on my skin.
I love to see the first flowers
and the very first feeling of spring,
the very first feeling of spring.

There's nothing more to say,
there's nothing more to say, yeah.
There's nothing more to say,
there's nothing more to say.

I love the smell in the air
after a summer rain shower.
I love when my friends would always be there
to forget all pain, all sorrow,
don't think about tomorrow.
don't think about tomorrow.
There's nothing more to say ...

I wish

I don't know what to feel now,
I can't see myself anymore.
There's nobody to adore.
I don't know if it's right for me
and what I wanted to be.

I wish I was dead,
somehow I wish I could be somebody else.
But you don't care,
you don't care, yeah, yeah.

Get out of my,
get out of my head!

Tears are crashing my heart apart,
looking up to the ground.
Are you aware of it at all?
The nights I will went,
the days I will lay me down.

I wish I was dead,
somehow I wish I could be somebody else.
But you don't care,
you don't care, yeah, yeah.

Get out of my,
get out of my head!

Get out of my,
get out of my,
get out of my head!

Get out of my,
get out of my,
get out of my head!

Tears are crashing my heart apart,
looking up to the ground.
Are you aware of it at all?

Are you really loving me? (Remix)

It was a beautiful day and so were you.

Flowers in your hair,
looking like flames in the summer sun.

In your mind there's no fear,
she's wild and free, having fun.

You're far away from earth,
away in dreams, in dreams with me.

Are you really loving me?

Are you?

Are you really loving me?

Are you?

Never seen a face like yours before.

Never seen such a smile.

How many days shared we?

Let's drift away for a while.

Hear your voice around me.

I want to stay forever right there.

Don't you feel that I really care?

Are you really loving me?

Are you?

Are you really loving me?

Are you?

How I enjoy the time with you,
being next to you, feeling your skin.

Can you feel my heart beating, too?

Your lovely face, in front of me.

Somebody like you, I've never known before in my overcrowded life.

Miles away you seem to be.

Are you really loving me?

Are you?

Are you really loving me?

Are you?

Are you really loving me?

Are you?

Are you really loving me?

Are you?

The lie

Wouldn't it be so empty with you?
Some nights I feel sorry for some of my faults,
but it's so hard to find the right way.

And I went into the light
and I did what I thought was right.
And now I'm here alone –
maybe I was wrong.

There have been many changes in my life.
Some of my decisions, I have made,
they were not right.
Some were – let's say – I'm not really sure.

And I went into the light
and I did what I thought was right.
And now I'm here alone –
maybe I was wrong.

I hated the rules,
the things we were used to, used to do in every day
I think it was it to leave and not to stay.

And I went into the light
and I did what I thought was right.
And now I'm here alone –
maybe I was wrong.

Vampire song

One day I lost my shadow,
I felt the darkness grow,
I became fear
for all of you out there
one day. Oh don't you pray?

I promised to myself
that I will never die.
And then there was no more light.

One day I lost my shadow,
I felt the darkness grow,
I became fear
for all of you out there
one day. Oh don't you pray?

I went out in the night
and I never felt so alive.
The blood was running out.

One day I lost my shadow,
I felt the darkness grow,
I became fear
for all of you out there
one day. Oh don't you pray?

I can still hear the screams.
I can still feel the red life within.
I can't forget the taste,
oh I can't forget the taste,
I can't forget the taste,
oh I can't forget, can't forget ...

One day I lost my shadow,
I felt the darkness grow,
I became fear
for all of you out there
one day. Oh don't you pray?

Get down

I get down to my only wish
cause I lost my faith
in tears of the night.
I get down to my only wish
that I want to live.
I get down to my only wish tonight
cause I lost my pride.

Healing words, the wounds are aching,
the running water around my skin.
Dying would be a pleasure –
I can't stand the pressure.

I want to forget
and I want you to regret.
Nobody can say
if your life gonna stay,
if I gonna take it away.

I get down to my only wish
cause I lost my faith
in tears of the night.
I get down to my only wish
that I want to live.
I get down to my only wish tonight
cause I lost my pride.

Away, away, drifting away.
Shame is rising, inside I'm dying
but I take you with me down.
I want to see you crying.
Blood is dripping down your crown.

I get down to my only wish
cause I lost my faith
in tears of the night.
I get down to my only wish
that I want to live.
I get down to my only wish tonight
cause I lost my pride.

Lose You 2

The rose was red
when I saw her the last time
left her on an open field
so someone could maybe find

I searched for you
for so long, for so long
I can't hear you,
cause I'm wrong

Nothing here
in the dust of my Fears
it's empty in my world
no life only cries
no life only flies

where are my eyes – I can't see the sun
where is my hope
where are my skies – there is no hope
where is my soul

I am hounded
I am wanted
look in the mirror
no face there
no face, anywhere

I can't hear you,
don't be wrong
I can't hear you,
don't be wrong

where are my eyes – I can't see the sun
where is my hope
where are my skies – there is no hope
where is my soul

I can't find a way out of this field I wait
Maybe there will be dust here someday

I can't find a way out of this field I lay Maybe there will be flowers here someday

the key is the time

Heavy Cross

When I see your empty eyes (I feel so alone)
so weak, so nothing
I wanna more but I can't
I wanna show but you stand alone

Ref:

You are not alone
We're cycling around You don't have to
it all by your own

That we're not visible doesn't mean that we're not there that we don't do doesn't mean that we can't but it's your way

Ref.

That you can't see us doesn't mean
we're not here
That we don't always help doesn't mean that we don't care.

Ref.

Another sad Sunday morning

I wake up in my silent thoughts
You are still there, You are still there in my head will it ever go away
I feel so lost on my way today

Will I be ever satisfied
Will I be ever, ever
Will I be ever satisfied
Will I be ever, ever

Memories up in my mind
this awful feeling of special kind Silence, silence all around
I'm so overwhelmed now

Will I be ever satisfied
Will I be ever, ever
Will I be ever satisfied
Will I be ever, ever

I'm sorry, I'm sorry for all against my will I am still..
maybe tomorrow
I will forget you

Oh I will never be satisfied
no I will never, never, never.
