Friend

There was a friend I truly had.
She gave up the friendship for a hand of crack.
To help her I tried a letter, a long talk, a call,
She won't understand, it's like running against a wall.

Say why people are doing this? Say why!
Say why she did it too? Say why!
Say why she don't understand it!
Say why! Say why! Say why!

Her new friends say it's all right,
if she spend with her boyfriend the night.
I hope for that nights she will not pay with a baby,
her 16 years old live will change radically.

Say why people are doing this? Say why!
Say why she did it too? Say why!
Say why she don't understand it!
Say why! Say why! Say why!

The others will go out to and have some fun,
she will have to stay the housework to run.
Without true love her boyfriend won't stay,
he will leave her once a very shiny day.

Say why people are doing this? Say why!
Say why she did it too? Say why!
Say why she don't understand it!
Say why! Say why! Say why!

She's alone with the baby on her arm,
and the crack on the other.
So please god stop her from doing this
to save her from a life she won't miss.

Say why people are doing this?
Say why she did it, too?
Say why she didn't understand?
Say why? Say why?

Love Maria

Look at your pretty face
made of glamour and gold standing in the greatest light for the love of men.

A woman once alone, strong and warm
Love Maria
I hope this is what you expected to be.

Flowers to your feet the best to get
A lovely smell all around just for you
All the people believing in you
Can you held their hopes high?

A woman once alone, strong and warm
Love Maria
I hope this is what you expected to be.

Symbols for love and protection;
standing everywhere our looks fall at.
Where's the mother?
Behind the golden mask people look at you because of your beauty!

A woman once alone, strong and warm
Love Maria
I hope this is what you expected to be.

Mother, Protector, or glamour wife?
Your shelter of wealth can it protect your believers?

Away

The street is passing by my car
like the river of live.
And million lights around me
like your faces in my memory.
They went by like the lights were gone,
but deep inside you will always be.

Year after year,
day after day,
everything, everything
went away.

The sun is dying again,
falling behind the big buildings I see.
And if I remind my feeling back in time, you're,
I see that you are now a part of me
that went by.

Year after year,
day after day,
everything, everything
went away.

The year went by,
the day went by,
you went by.
Is there something that would stay just for me?

Some of you will forget me
like a light far away in the sea,
new things will face us like.
But I don't feel sorry.
It's just like it should be after all. So just be.
Just take your time and be you.

Year after year,
day after day,
everything, everything
went away.

In the end just the electricity
that keeps lights burning in strength.
I can see this strength in you all –
not only to pass this life.
Now is real, tomorrow hasn't passed yet.
Just take your time and be you.

Not worth

All the things you said to me, all the things you showed –
now I know nothing was meant to be true.

You're not worth to die for,
you're not worth to lie for,
you're not worth for me to be around.

Little tiny flies lying around my ears, flying through my skin
to search the water in ...
Ouch sounds like this could ace.

Whu how I wish it wouldn't ace
Whu how I felt for you.

Second time turns over the one
when the light comes back again,
steeling my fantasy,
dropping me into the world.

Could you read my mind.

Can't you see my tears?
Lies, lies after all.

Strange but sweet

When she gets up in the morning
it's warm and quite
the day she can look through him.
The sun outside is shining bright.

There is a feeling when I see her.
No, not normal.
Strange but sweet
is all in my head I know.

There is a feeling when I see her.
No, not normal.
Strange but sweet
is all in my head I know.

The crazy clothes she wears – you see her. It's never the same.
what she always does with her hair,
the girl I know not wanting a name.

There is a feeling when I see her.
No, not normal.
Strange but sweet
is all in my head I know.

There is a feeling when I see her.
No, not normal.
Strange but sweet
is all in my head I know.

Seeing her dancing across the street.
She seems like a little child to be on the wet ground with her naked feet
to give her emotion free.

There is a feeling when I see her.
No, not normal.
Strange but sweet
is all in my head I know.

There is a feeling when I see her.
No, not normal.
Strange but sweet
is all in my head I know.

When you look out in the dark night
maybe you can see her.
When you listen very quite
maybe you can hear her.

There is a feeling when I see her.
No, not normal.
Strange but sweet
is all in my head I know.

There is a feeling when I see her.
No, not normal.
Strange but sweet
is all in my head I know.

No sunshine

I'm alone in a world of lovers.
where is the place I can hide of them?
To hide from you?
A little dark place inside of me helping to forget you.

Don't tell me you will do better!
Don't tell me things that may change our memory!
Just leave!
I'm not your sunshine anymore.

Artificial love was all you gave to me.
How could you be so rude to my heart?
How could you disappoint my innocent trust that way?
Why weren't you not honest to me?
Was there no place for truth in your pitiful life?

Don't tell me you will do better!
Don't tell me things that may change our memory!
Just leave!
I'm not your sunshine anymore.

Darkness runs trough my body.
The soul came up in me and it hurts so bad.
Please don't look so silly at me. I know,
I know it was not only your fault,
cause it's my heart not loving you anymore.

Don't tell me you will do better!
Don't tell me things that may change our memory!
Just leave!
I'm not your sunshine anymore.

Für Mom und Dad

Mum, dad, you should know that.
Mum, dad, I think you might be interested
that we wouldn't be,
we wouldn't be. So
thanx,
thanx to you.

Let's say the past was hard.
Oh no, please don't say a word
to take the chance
of making it better.

Mum, dad, you should know that.
Mum, dad, I think you might be interested
that we wouldn't be,
we wouldn't be. So
thanx,
thanx to you.

There should be no thing in this world
that could make us look apart,
apart from each other.

Mum, dad, you should know that.
Mum, dad, I think you might be interested
that we wouldn't be,
we wouldn't be. So
thanx,
thanx to you.

Let's say the past was fine.
Smile just one only time
that there will be hope and trust forever in our hearts.

Moves on

The youth is growing –
children are getting adults more and more.
The childhood paradise is leaving –
they have to live the hard life for sure.

And everything moves on –
the earth never stops turning,
the sun never burns out (in our lifetime).
Who knows the reason?

The olds are laying down,
getting smaller, getting weaker more and more,
always closer to the ground,
asking themselves what it was for.

And everything moves on –
the earth never stops turning,
the sun never burns out (in our lifetime).
Who knows the reason?

The technology is getting better day by day.
Everything gets new and breaks down again.
People come and go away,
living through glory, hate and shame.

And everything moves on –
the earth never stops turning,
the sun never burns out (in our lifetime).
Who knows the reason?

No I don't know the reason
and I don't think anyone could tell me.
But I'm sure we will get to know when the time has come for us to understand.

It was only a smile

My heart still beats that fast in me.
There is a strange feeling in my soul.
Still my lungs are trying to breath.
But no, I'm not happy.

There we were, you and me,
looking in our faces
but it was only a smile.

Why didn't you hold me?
Am I not good enough in this case?
Why didn't you tell me your love?
Tears are running down my face.

There we were, you and me,
looking in our faces
but it was only a smile.

My back leaning against the wall,
the emotions are fighting inside.
All my dreams my hopes begin to fall.
But who knows maybe you're right?

There we were, you and me,
looking in our faces
but it was only a smile.

A candy smile you gave to me –
nothing else, nothing more.
And I thought you love me!

Fallen angel

Raindrops in her eyes.
The finally finish farer away then before.
Is there a possibility she doesn't fall?
Is there a possibility she will get up again?
On a way like a circle, there is no way, no way back.
Into mums arms out of the dark to see the light again.

She is the fallen angel escaping from dark sky
to find him, the key to save her from living.

Feeling a dream without hope lies all over, a dying mask to hide behind.
Nobody to kill to her lonely arms.
Trying to close her eyes without any faith.
Madness all through the mankind of a sick world.
It's only a matter of time.

She is the fallen angel escaping from dark sky
to find him, the key to save her from living.

Seeing sick people loving each other in a health less aggressive fast love, 16 years old mothers losing there nerves.
Children never seen there childhood in a way they should.
There dead bodies lying in front of her,
not able to look away, cold dreams in her mind,
no one to share, nobody to tell.

She is the fallen angel escaping from dark sky
She is my fallen angel escaping out my mind.
She is the lost soul seeing this sick world turning and turning around and never stopping.

She is trying not to see me anymore.

Leaving them back

Can you see all these tapers,
these fools around this place?
They aren't these backstoppers
crumblin' through my head.

I'm leavin' them back,
don't want to remember –
I want to leave that shit behind.

I'm watching out,
can't see anything.
Is this the way
to escape from this living?

I'm watching out,
can't see anything.
Is this the way?
I have to win!

Can you see all these tapers,
these fools around this place?
They aren't these backstoppers
crumblin' through my head.

I'm leavin' them back,
don't want to remember –
I'm not going back!

Saw you there

When my mind gets back
the colours are coming back to me.
Move my body only to check
I'm awake again.
I hold you and so you me
with light around. I don't know why.
Only you, nothing else to see.
Where was I gone tonight?

Saw you there
holding me, following me.
Let it never come true.
I saw you there – you.

A feeling moves through my body.
Your eyes I can still see them.
Have we ever been that far away?
You and me gone.
Would you want to stay?
On this trip away from life.
Will it be in reality one day?
Was this true this love, this night?

Saw you there
holding me, following me.
Let it never come true.
I saw you there – you.

Like a bird the view moved around flying away in an hopeful dream.
Not only a peace of secrets to be found like us there forever.
Just don't know the meaning.
I don't think it is a dream to stay.
In reality it seems going.
No it won't go away.

Never.

The Land

Collapsing TV shows every day.
People talking about worthless problems
in a worthless society.
To blind to see that everything we create in our brains are more and more things that make us hate our body.

There will be a land where flowers are all over dead bodies.
It will be a place for freedom to become real.
Hope will only bring you there.

It would not make any sense for us
keeping our souls closed behind big doors.
But is hard enough to face the whole world
without landing alone and empty inside.
Never keep on thinking!

There will be a land where flowers are all over dead bodies.
It will be a place for freedom to become real.
Hope will only bring you there.

Even our little children are arguing with each other
because of facts that are growing in our society.
Our lives are surely more than good although we regret it where we can in our daily life.
Look at what your life is!

There will be a land where flowers are all over dead bodies.
It will be a place for freedom to become real.
Hope will only bring you there.

Rock the party

It was no shiny day –
we have to get away
because this is no fun no more.
Let's get to the party,
let's jump on.

We will rock the party,
rock the party on.
We will have some fun,
that's why parties are goin' on.

We will rock the party,
rock the party on.
We will have some fun,
that's why parties are goin' on.

It's boring to sit around
when there's party in town.
So we decided for sure:
Let's get to the party,
let's come on.

We will rock the party,
rock the party on.
We will have some fun,
that's why parties are goin' on.

We will rock the party,
rock the party on.
We will have some fun,
that's why parties are goin' on.

Don't stay back and watch TV.
That's why your mind isn't getting' free.
I know you really want to get away, so:
Let's get to the party,
let's jump on.

We will rock the party,
rock the party on.
We will have some fun,
that's why parties are goin' on.

We will rock the party,
rock the party on.
We will have some fun,
that's why parties are goin' on.

You don't want to be lonely no more?
You don't want to be getting small?
So you – you're really going away.
Let's get to the party
have some fun.

We will rock the party,
rock the party on.
We will have some fun,
that's why parties are goin' on.

We will rock the party,
rock the party on.
We will have some fun,
that's why parties are goin' on.

The war

There's not a square metre not touched with tears on this earth.
When hands touch the ground showing fear and pain
all of one reason that we know
so familiar by now.

The war, the war, a war
made by few
to kill thousands innocent.
The war, the war.

Empty streets as a result, kills of sorrow
and valleys of pain.
All the reasons you could give
are not worth to this at least in my eyes,
at least in the view of the common sense.

The war, the war, a war
made by few
to kill thousands innocent.
The war, the war.

Let's look up, upon all reasons,
upon all political aims.
Let's be better as human are made to be.

The war, the war, a war
made by few
to kill thousands innocent.
The war, the war.

A moment or less

A little chick and the next ones on.
Only five minuets later it will be gone.
Another fool in the way that we live.
Say: Do we need all this in our hearts?

The force that makes you happy
for a moment or less.
The force that makes you happy
for a moment or less.

It doesn't taste anymore
but one byte is followed by the other.
Wasn't it a friend that told you, that told you to look like the ones on the cover?

The force that makes you happy
for a moment or less.
The force that makes you happy
for a moment or less.

But a little voice in you will say:
"I love whoever you are,
I love whoever you are."

The force that makes you happy
for a moment or less.
The force that makes you happy
for a moment or less.

But your life is so long and could be free
if your willing is strong.

Just here

We are watching the stars,
we are watching how the trees are darker than the night is.

Our thoughts are too far away from the dream we had.

Now at the moment
I can smell you're near.
Now at the moment
I can feel you care.
Now at the moment I don't want to be somewhere else –
just here with you.

A clear sky shows my desire.
I can see it, I can feel it.
Smooth and warm coming down
shining down to me.

Now at the moment
I can smell you're near.
Now at the moment
I can feel you care.
Now at the moment I don't want to be somewhere else –
just here with you.

And they will remember me
when the time had come to die –
when my time came to die.

Smooth and cold your face.
Smooth and cold my grace.

Empty

The street still tastes like rain.
Yes, there's light but the night's not over, not over yet.
My brain's still searching for a name.
I realize that my shoes are still wet.

Sleepless, faceless, careless
and hungry
I found myself again.

I found out something new cause this is not me.
Water reflects aren't true.
Oh god, why does my heart aces so?

Sleepless, faceless, careless
and hungry
I found myself again.

I should stand up and go home or at least try to go, try to know, know how.
I can't remember, ok, I just don't want.
Oh tell me why does my heart aces so!
This is me, this is me again
saying "hello" to the world, looking at me again.

Sleepless, faceless, careless
and hungry
I found myself again.

Keep on walking

Thousand facilities here and there will be a thousand more selected pieces of stone on the street
not interested in your feet.

Keep on walking,
keep on.
Keep on walking,
keep on.
Keep on walking.

Cause life free
so are we.
But there is no more time.
Don't believe if they say everything's fine. Look further, never stop to ask harder.

Keep on walking,
keep on.
Keep on walking,
keep on.
Keep on walking.

Fail

When it's very, very, very quiet you can hear her. Punishing, smashing, people crashing –
the fear of not making it right.

It's up to her, your eyes will be opened wide.
Grapping bodies, freezing, crawling, bleeding.
your only wish to get over this night.

Oh my god
I fail,
I know I'll fail,
fail and fail and fail again.

When all rescues hide,
when pain is taking main and murdering.
A emotion of everything changing the side.
But to me it's something, the only thing showing,
makes me knowing that I'm still alive.

Oh my god
I fail,
I know I'll fail,
fail and fail and fail again.

The power and the strength seems to be here ever
but when I close my eyes
I feel the cold deep,
crazy fear in here.

Hold me

My car broke down on a gas station
on the way from here out of town.
But in my mind I'm back, right here
where she is, sitting there, waiting for me, telling.

Hold me in your arms,
hold me in your dreams.
Hold me through the time,
never go away.

But no, I can't take it my little girl.
I was standing in the middle of the town
missing you.
Seeing things that passes me by.

Hold me in your arms,
hold me in your dreams.
Hold me through the time,
never go away.

I was looking around to find an exit.
And while my heart was bleeding I went on.
She shouldn't know, she wouldn't hold my hand
and pretending her love to me over and over again.

Hold me in your arms,
hold me in your dreams.
Hold me through the time,
never go away.

But I'm gone, I'm gone,
my little girl.
Never I will come back again.
But I'm gone, I'm gone
my sweet little girl waiting there at home.

Train of pain

Give it up just everything today.
The last tear
to bring freedom to my heart.

Hell on earth or heaven in hell –
it's no big difference at all.
To think about makes me break in small little pieces no one could ever put together again.
Heartbeats won't last, won't even try,
just stop for everything to break.

Give it up just everything today.
The last tear
to bring freedom to my heart.

Smoke and dust of the earth in lungs.
Can I ever get rid of it again?
My opinion "Who cares? It's just me.",
but question "Isn't it just you, just us?".
Maybe I sometimes think I'm special,
but who doesn't?
Who doesn't fail the race?

Give it up just everything today.
The last tear
to bring freedom to my heart.

Whenever I try to look up I feel the pain,
Feel how I break deep down in my soul.
New hope wants to rise every time
but it won't last against the light, the pain.
And slowly little pieces hit the ground,
falling apart just like we do.
Let's wait what's after.

Listen to me

On a sunny wednesday
my heart was thrown away.
I don't know the reasons,
just don't know why.

Listen to me! I'm still here,
drowning in my deepest fears
of being alone all my life,
searching for my way
through this world of pain and weakness.

I believed in you every single moment
my body was longing for your touch.
I was afraid of so many things
but I faced even the strongest fears.
My heart decided to be with you.
That day a wish came true.
Now I can't believe it's over.
Feels like I lost everything I had to lose.
A part of me is dying,
every day on more piece.
While I'm filling an ocean with tears for you
The cold touch of loneliness comes back.
I hate this feeling.

Listen to me! I'm still here,
drowning in my deepest fears
of being alone all my life,
searching for my way
through this world of pain and weakness.

Am I too complicated to be wanted?
Why don't you tell me reasons?
Never thought of you being weak like this.
For the first time I opened my heart to someone else.
I gave you everything I had,
now I'm not even sure if you ever wanted it.
Ask myself if I was just a game to play.
Again I've got to walk through the thunder alone.
I don't want to live without you.
I can't carry on, there is nothing to hold on.
Don't you understand that I love you?

Listen to me! I'm still here,
drowning in my deepest fears
of being alone all my life,
searching for my way
through this world of pain and weakness.

Listen to me! I'm still here,
drowning in my deepest fears
of being alone all my life,
searching for my way
through this world of pain and weakness.

Guess it's time for me to give up fighting because there is nothing more to fight for.
There are no feelings on your side
and I can't make you love me.
I've already gone too far.
It wouldn't have been easy – that's true –
but we could have made it through.
You were like a present from above.
You'll always be in the heart of mine.
It just wasn't meant to be the one great love.
Maybe in another place and time.

Vacant

Steal in front of me
and walls behind.
Oh could my prison be like that!
But it's like no one wants to see.
There must be an exit to find.

And my heart gets vacant again
when the moon left me,
when my sins went away.
No life in me anymore,
no pain to trust there.

Shadows in my eyes.
Is there anything I could do?
Who wouldn't pay every price
just to get out and taste air again in our empty lungs.

And my heart gets vacant again
when the moon left me,
when my sins went away.
No life in me anymore,
no pain to trust there.

Silence in my words
but crazy the thoughts I think.
Wood in front of me.
Maybe lately I will find a door I never expected to be.

And my heart gets vacant again
when the moon left me,
when my sins went away.
No life in me anymore,
no pain to trust there.

Sensitive man

Oh yeah, you're cool, really cool
of cause you have to.
And you're nice, really nice at least in my eyes.
Short skirts – you like them just like mini tops.
Beauty girls you like to be around.

But in your heart, I know,
you're a sensitive man
with dreams over and over in your mind.
And that's why I love you.

Now you maybe ask yourself
how I should know that.
It's just the look in your eyes that made me realize that you're not that guy everybody tells you'd be.
And maybe because I like you a little bit.

Cause in your heart, I know,
you're a sensitive man
with dreams over and over in your mind.
And that's why I love you.

So I don't care if you do things not fitting on you sometimes.
And no, I won't change you as long as you don't want me to – but then I'll try to show you what's inside.

Cause in your heart, I know,
you're a sensitive man
with dreams over and over in your mind.
And that's why I love you.

But please ...
be as you really are when you're with me
cause my love is only for the man inside.

Cause in your heart, I know,
you're a sensitive man
with dreams over and over in your mind.
And that's why I love you.

The anger

There were days
I liked you being around.
But you said words,
you made things that make me say “How could this be?”

It's the anger I feel when I see you,
the little anger growing to hate.

Why do you do
the things you do?
Why do you hurt people,
especially me? Cause once
I thought you would be different.

It's the anger I feel when I see you,
the little anger growing to hate.

You want to judge me.
Die I ever judge you?
I would be better
you wouldn't do!

You could have said “I love”
but you said “I hate”.
Maybe you want to change it –
but sorry – now it's too late.

This is the anger.
I feel anger for you!
Believe: You're not there for me anymore!

Barbie is a slut

I'm so cute and nice
With my big breasts and my highheels.
And I'm so lucky with my blond hair
And the tattoo at my backside and the men sleeping around with me

Oh I hate you!
I will never be the same!
Oh I make you become nothing!
I will not be like you,
I will not be like you!

"Oh I'm thin and also talented,
running around in the shortest everything.
Don't you like me?
Won't you touch me?"

I'm free from out and from the inside.
This is my anger going down on you!
Making you "Matsch"!

I just don't believe in you!

I'm free from out and from the inside.
This is my anger going down on you!
Making you "Matsch"!

What do you tell me?
What do you show me?

I'm free from out and from the inside.
This is my anger going down on you!
Making you "Matsch"!

Fly on my wings

Fly on my wings,
try to catch the breath I had,
read letters of my skin,
hear words I have never said.
You never reach me.

You pretend like you have always done
but today these words make me sick.
Several times our love was new born.
Can't help – to me this all seems like a lie,
Your world and mine.

No more prohibited areas,
no more lies,
no more promises ...
