

Vampire song

One day I lost my shadow,
I felt the darkness grow,
I became fear
for all of you out there
one day. Oh don't you pray?

I promised to myself that I will never die.
And then there was no more light.

One day I lost my shadow,
I felt the darkness grow,
I became fear
for all of you out there
one day. Oh don't you pray?

I went out in the night and I never felt so alive.
The blood was running out.

One day I lost my shadow,
I felt the darkness grow,
I became fear
for all of you out there
one day. Oh don't you pray?

I can still hear the screams.
I can still feel the red life within.
I can't forget the taste,
oh I can't forget the taste,
I can't forget the taste,
oh I can't forget, can't forget ...

One day I lost my shadow,
I felt the darkness grow,
I became fear
for all of you out there
one day. Oh don't you pray?
